The Cinderella Scholarship Program is now in its fourth decade as the world's largest and most prestigious scholarship pageant of its kind. The Cinderella Scholarship Program champions the need and value of higher education for women and has awarded millions of dollars in cash scholarships to young women from the United States and a host of foreign countries. Each year participants earn $100,000 in cash, prizes, and scholarships at its International Grand Finals.

Note: All overall winners must represent the state at the international pageant to be held in Dallas, TX on July 23-27, 2018 or they shall forfeit their title.

Cinderella Beauty Competition (all age divisions) and Cameo Girl	5:30 – 6:15
Dessert Banquet and Crowning/Tot Talent	7:30 – 9:30

AREAS OF COMPETITION – MANDATORY EVENTS

In all areas, girls are judged on confidence, personal appearance, grooming, poise, personality and stage presence.

Cinderella Beauty: Contestants in the Tot through Miss divisions model a knee or tea-length party dress. Teen and Woman contestants model a full length gown.

Casualwear: Contestants model a casual outfit; usually a dress, slacks, shorts, jackets, matching sets, NO SWIMSUITS or "SPORTSWEAR."

Talent & Tot Personality: Talent is required for the Mini Miss, Miss, Teen, and Woman age divisions. Talent presentations should not exceed 2 minutes 30 seconds, and are judged on technical ability, personality, appropriateness, and entertainment value. Tot Personality, an onstage interview, takes the place of Talent for the Tot division.

Interview: All divisions will have an interview with the judges. Tot, Mini Miss, and Miss contestants will be interviewed in groups by a panel of judges, being asked 3-5 questions each. Teen and Woman contestants will have individual interviews with a panel of judges, and will last for about 5 minutes.

Photogenic: Contestants are to submit one photograph. Photos must be 5x7 or larger, and be either color or black & white. Contestants are judged on photogenic qualities and personality.
